

DOMINIC MONAGHAN FOR PETA PEOPLE FOR THE ETHICAL TREATMENT OF ANIMALS

share the world

Rapid land development forces animals like raccoons, rabbits, deer, coyotes, and squirrels to live in closer proximity to people than ever before. Your actions can and do have an impact on the natural environment around you. Please consider a humane solution to wildlife issues in your community or in your own back yard. For more information on what you can do to help wild animals in your area, please visit HelpingAnimals.com.
